SHN, ICHA and Shepherd Village have developed a unique and exciting collaborative program to provide excellent primary care for vulnerable and complex client populations.

The program consists of two components that offer the successful candidates valuable experience serving different target populations in very different practice settings. The clinic is located next to busy Agincourt Mall. Successful candidates will establish a comprehensive family medicine practice with access to a wide-range of subspecialists at SHN. Incentives will include subsidized overhead and staffing support. Physicians in this new role will also spend part of their time supporting ICHA primary care clinics which take place at a number of shelter sites in Scarborough. They will be supported by ICHA's wide network of outreach specialists with virtual office administrative supports. Compensation will be from the following sources: Fee for service (OHIP billings) and sessionals (ICHA).
